

HOW TO LOG IN?

If you want to log into system you have to write your access data into „Username" and „Password" fields and click „Log in" button.

If you've got some codes to create your own access you have to choose the „First time" link and retype your Group and Student number and you will be redirected to the creating account screen.

If your login failed:

1. Check whether your web address is correct and re-enter your password.
